

Program

FRIDAY, 6 MAY 2022

8:00-8:50 CONFERENCE REGISTRATION

8:50-9:00
Senate & Board Chamber Opening Remarks

9:00-10:00
Senate & Board Chamber Plenary Address (Virtual)
Canadian Lessons to be Learned from the Kosovo War
Bob Bergen, Independent Scholar

10:00-10:15 COFFEE BREAK

10:15-11:45 Session 1

Senate & Board Chamber 1A | Morale in the Canadian Army of the Second World War
Chair: Geoffrey Hayes, University of Waterloo

Letters from the Boiler Room: Communication and Control in a Canadian Internment Camp
Gillian Wagenaar [University of Waterloo]

Court Martial Case of Sappers Flynn and Long: Intoxication and the Canadian Army Overseas Morale Handbook
Murad Alizada [University of Waterloo]

More than just a Black Pen: Gauging Canadian Army Morale through the Use of Censorship Reports
Megan Hamilton [University of Waterloo]

Paul Martin Centre

1B | Cold War Canada
Chair: Matthew Wiseman, St. Jerome's University

"Things that go 'Krump' in the Night": The Evolution of Canadian Export Policy, 1946-1991
Paul Esau [Wilfrid Laurier University]

An Analysis of Early Cold War RCAF Air Transport through the Career of Bill Carr
Richard Goette [Canadian Forces College]

The Chiefs of Staff Committee and Continental Air Defence, 1954-64: How Not to Manage Defence Policy
Peter Kasurak [Centre for International and Defence Policy, Queen's University]

11:45-12:30
Senate & Board Chamber

LUNCH

12:30-2:00

Session 2

Senate & Board Chamber

2A | Recruitment and Community Identity
Chair: Michael Petrou, Canadian War Museum

Three Polish Armies in Canada
Stan Skrzeszewski [Independent Scholar]

"Ready, Aye Ready": The Role of National Identity in the Recruitment Processes of Selected Canadian-Scottish Battalions during the First World War
Lucy Warrington [University of British Columbia]

Fair Representation: Recruiting and Accommodating French Canadians in the Army during the Second World War
Ryan d'Eon [University of Waterloo]

Paul Martin Centre

2B | At the Front in the Second World War
Chair: Matthew Barrett, Canadian War Museum

A View from the Ground: Canadians in Iceland, 1940-41
Christina Chowaniec [Independent Scholar]

Bloody Verrières: The German Forces opposing Operations Goodwood and Atlantic, 18-22 July 1944
Arthur Gullachsen [Royal Military College of Canada]

Canadian Media at War: Canadian War Correspondents and the Canadian Army during the Second World War
Melissa Wing [University of Victoria]

2:00-2:15 COFFEE BREAK

2:15-3:45 Session 3

Senate & Board Chamber

3A | Memory, Veterans and Descendants
Chair: Jennifer Wellington, University College Dublin

Do Ghosts have Warm Hands? Reconsidering the War Stories of Will R. Bird
Kyle Falcon [Independent Scholar]

Long Ripples of War: How Canadian Veterans' Experiences are Revealed through Oral History
Michael Petrou [Canadian War Museum]

My Father Never Talked about the War: Memories of Newfoundland's Blue Puttees
Michael Wert [Independent Scholar]

Paul Martin Centre

3B | First World War Logistics
Chair: Kyle Pritchard, Wilfrid Laurier University

Keep the Axes Sharp and the Saws Spinning: the Operations of the Canadian Forestry Corps during 1918
Cameron Bartlett [Independent Scholar]

"The Road to Death": Roads in the First World War and the Canadian Corps
Bradley Shoebottom [University of New Brunswick]

Men of Trained Intelligence: McGill University's 7th Siege Battery's Baptism of Fire and Logistics at Vimy
Robert Smol [University of New Brunswick] (Virtual)

3:45-4:45

Session 4

Paul Martin Centre

4A | From Dieppe to Juno: the 80th Anniversary of the Dieppe Raid
Chair: Kyle Falcon, Independent Scholar

From Dieppe to Juno: the 80th Anniversary of the Dieppe Raid
Alex Fitzgerald-Black [Juno Beach Centre Association]

Who Tells the Story of Dieppe? A Digital Educational Resource
Louisa Simmons [Juno Beach Centre Association]

Arts 1E1

4B | The Home Front
Chair: Kevin Spooner, Wilfrid Laurier University

Troops, Refugees & Boarding Houses in Blackpool, Lancashire 1914-1918: the Multi-Functions of Hotels in the First World War
Kevin James and Andrew Northey [University of Guelph]

Hockey and War: the Northern Fusiliers, the National Hockey Association and the First World War
Nick Small [Wilfrid Laurier University]

6:30-7:00
Senate & Board Chamber

Book Launches

Scandalous Conduct: Canadian Officer Courts Martial, 1914-45 by Matthew Barrett

Montreal at War, 1914-1918 by Terry Copp and Alexander Maavara

7:00
Senate & Board Chamber

BANQUET & KEYNOTE ADDRESS

(Mis) remembering? Canadian Wartime Propaganda
Jennifer Wellington, University College Dublin

SATURDAY, 7 MAY 2022

8:30-9:00 CONFERENCE REGISTRATION

9:00-10:00
Senate & Board Chamber

Plenary Address
Crerar's Lieutenants and the Challenge of Canadian Army Morale, 1939-1945
Geoffrey Hayes, University of Waterloo

10:00-10:15 COFFEE BREAK

10:15-11:45 Session 5

Senate & Board Chamber

5A | Commemoration and Material History
Chair: Alex Fitzgerald-Black, Juno Beach Centre Association

Not Lost at Sea: the Ajax Club Collection
Wes Cross [McGill Remembers Roundtable]

Local Stories Lead the Nation: Commemoration of the Second World War in Canada
Thomas Littlewood [University of Guelph]

Valour Stolen? The Loss and Investigation of Lieutenant E.D. Bellew's Victoria Cross
Craig Leslie Mantle [Royal Military College of Canada]

Paul Martin Centre

5B | Perspectives on 20th Century Canadian Military Leadership
Chair: Caroline D'Amours, Royal Military College of Canada

Students, Fall In! Queen's University and the Canadian Officers Training Corps in the Second World War
Andrew Brown [Royal Military College of Canada]

Leading Canadian Citizen Soldiers: No. 5/No. 7 (Queen's University) Military Hospital in the First World War
Howard Coombs [Royal Military College of Canada]

Too Much of a Good Thing: the Failure of the CF-105 Arrow as a Failure of Canadian Grand Strategy, 1952-1961
John Keess [Royal Military College of Canada]

A Tale of Two Brigadiers: Robert Moncel and James Jefferson in Operation Suitcase
Nicholas Wheeler [Royal Military College of Canada]

11:45-12:30
Senate & Board Chamber
LUNCH

12:30-2:00
Session 6

Senate & Board Chamber
6A | From War to Peace
Chair: Eric Story, Wilfrid Laurier University

Claims about Conflict: the War Claims Commission as Historical Source (Virtual)
Jeff Noakes [Canadian War Museum]

There and Back Again: Ken Bell's Re-Photography Projects (Virtual)
Carla-Jean Stokes [Independent Scholar]

Paul Martin Centre

6B | Civilian-Military Relations
Chair: Craig Leslie Mantle, Royal Military College of Canada

Citizen Settler Soldier Scoundrel: the Dominion of Canada's Colonial Garrison in Manitoba, 1870-1877
David Grebstad [Independent Scholar]

Military Support to Penitentiary Services, 1868-1934
Tyler Wentzell [University of Toronto]

Fire From Above: The Fu-Go Balloon Bomb Campaign in British Columbia
Aaron Stefik [University of Victoria]

Arts 1E1

6C | Gender and Military Service
Chair: Kandace Bogaert, Wilfrid Laurier University

Scandalous Conduct: The Brown–Rebitt Court Martial, 1933
Matthew Barrett [Canadian War Museum]

Doctors at War: Dr. Marion Ross and Dr. G.R.D. Farmer
Tabitha Marshall [Canadian Encyclopedia]

2:00-2:15 COFFEE BREAK

2:15-3:30
Senate & Board Chamber

Plenary Address
Experience of a War: Montreal 1939-43
Terry Copp, Wilfrid Laurier University

3:30-4:00 Closing Remarks

LCSC
Laurier Centre for the Study of Canada